Goa h'way: 84km by Dec

Sweety Bhagwat

MUMBAI

The long-delayed and contro-versial Mumbai-Goa highway, specifically the 84km stretch between Panvel and Indapur, has a fresh deadline and is now expected to be fully complete by December. Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis and Deputy CMs Eknath Shinde and Ajit Pawar are expected to review the works tomorrow (August 18).

This stretch is divided into two packages. One package covers 42.3km from Panvel to Kasu and another 42.3km up to Indapur. An official from the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) said only about 4km work is remaining. The entire project previously was expected to be completed by December 2024 but missed the deadline.

The 555km highway has been planned to connect Mumbai and Goa, of which 460km lies in Maharashtra till Patradevi in Sindhudurg.

Three people, including the driver of a luxury car, had a narrow escape when the vehicle caught fire on Ghodbunder Road in Thane on Saturday. The fire department and Regional Disaster Management Cell teams quickly responded and extinguished the flames. — Text: NK Gupta

NOD TO TRUE COPIES | The case pertains to seizure of 20,000 ampules of Buprenorphine on April 1, 2004; the Narcotics Control Bureau had booked 14 persons for running a racket

Drug case records lost in fire & rain, trial to begin after 21yrs

Charul Shah Joshi

MUMBAI

The special Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) court has come to the rescue of the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) in a 2004 case, wherein the agency lost original records in a fire as well as due to heavy rains in 2013. The court has allowed the NCB's plea to present the true copy of the original records during the trial which is yet to commence.

The case pertains to seizure of 20,000 ampules of Buprenorphine injections on April 1, 2004, with the agency booking 14 persons for running a racket. The charges were framed only in December last year and the case is now set for trial after more than 20 years.

As the trial was to commence, the prosecution moved a plea stating that the agency has lost all the original records pertaining to the case, on several accounts. It claimed that some papers were lost in shifting of the office, some were lost in fire and some were during heavy rain.

It was claimed that on July 3, 2013, fire broke out on the third floor, where the CBT module room computers and the 'Y' room computers and server were damaged.

However, maal khana (physical evidence room), arms and ammunition, record room and the remaining portion was saved, except for little damage due to water logging and smoke. Before the fire incident, there was damage in the room due to heavy rain. In these two incidents a significant number of records were lost. Hence the prosecution sought to rely on the true copies of the original record.

The plea was, however, opposed by the defence lawyers. It was contended that the agency has not demonstrated that the original documents are lost or destroyed despite diligent and reasonable efforts. Such loss is not attributable to their own negligence, mala fide or default.

The court noted that the ground raised by the agency of destruction of records in heavy rain was not supported by any documentary or oral material. Vis-à-vis destruction of records due to fire, the court noted that it was supported by the report of NCB zonal director, Mumbai.

Satisfied with the fire argument, the court said, "The complainant (agency) has demonstrated that the original document is unavailable... It is not attributed to the fault of the complainant. The documents are relevant and necessary for just and proper adjudication of the case."

16 yrs on, tenant directed to vacate rented room 'quietly'

Pranali Lotlikar

MUMBAI

After nearly 16 years of litigation, the Court of Small Causes, Bandra branch, has ordered the eviction of a 60-year-old Goregaon tenant, thereby ruling in favour of 83-year-old landlord Prakash Keshav Gavankar. The appellate bench, comprising Additional Chief Judge AA Ayachit and Judge DR Mali, set aside a 2022 trial court order that had dismissed the landlord's eviction suit.

The dispute centres on a 220 sq ft room at Gavankar Chawl, Ganesh Nagar, where the tenant Manjula Chandrakant Patel, had been residing. Gavankar sought eviction on multiple grounds, including non-payment of rent and non-occupation of the premises.

The trial court had earlier ruled against eviction, but on appeal, the judges found that Patel had failed to use the premises for over six months preceding the filing of the suit in 2009, which amounted to a violation under Section 16(1)(n) of the Maharashtra Rent Control Act.

"The trial court had rightly held that the defendant is not a defaulter in the payment of rent, but it failed to appreciate the oral and documentary evidence regarding non-user of the suit premises. Hence, the trial court's finding on this issue requires interference, as it is not just, legal, or proper. Accordingly, this court is required to set aside that finding on the ground of non-user," the court held.

While the court rejected Gavankar's claim of rent arrears, it directed Patel to hand over quiet, vacant, and peaceful possession of the premises within three months.

Patel's counsel, Advocate VR Tripathi, had argued that she continued to occupy the premises and was willing to pay rent, citing medical reasons for her frequent stays in Gujarat.

However, the court noted that key documents, including voter ID and ration cards, indicated her residence in Gujarat rather than Mumbai during the disputed period.

₹190-crore idling bus depot draws chain protest

Missed deadlines include a promised Republic Day 2023 opening and a monsoon 2025 assurance by forest minister Ganesh Naik

Activists call the idle depot a "criminal waste of public money", estimating ₹14.25 crore in lost annual interest; silent protest on Aug 23

Old building shut in 2019; commuters, including the elderly, women, and children, face chaotic and inconvenient travel conditions

Raina Assainar

NAVI MUMBAI

Frustrated with the long delay in opening the Rs190-crore, 21-floor bus depot at Vashi, citizen activists have announced a silent human chain protest on August 23 to highlight the hardships faced by commuters.

The protest is being organised by citizens' forum Human Chain, which has written to Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis seeking urgent intervention. The activists say that despite being completed more than a year ago, the massive commercial-cum-bus depot project has not been inaugurated, leaving thousands of commuters in distress.

Ever since the old Navi Mumbai Municipal Transport (NMMT) depot at Sector 9A was shut down in October 2019, passengers have been forced to wait for buses on open roads, exposed to rains, heat and dust. "When will commuters get freedom from these worries?" forum convenor BN Kumar asked.

The civic body had earlier promised to open the facility on Republic Day 2023, but deadlines have repeatedly been missed. Even Forest Minister and Airfoi MLA Ganesh Naik had assured that the depot would be operational by this monsoon, but commuters continue to wait.

Activists allege that keeping the taxpayer-funded building idle amounts to "a criminal waste of public money". Kumar pointed out that the NMMC could have earned at least Rs14.25 crore annually in interest if the amount had been deposited instead.

Citizens from various walks of life have voiced their anger. Housewife Vibha Symry said the absence of a proper depot makes travel confusing and inconvenient, while senior citizen groups highlighted the plight of the elderly, women and children forced to run after buses in chaotic traffic conditions.

The forum expressed hope that the silent human chain will prompt the Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation and NMMT to open the long-awaited facility at the earliest.

Meanwhile, according to NMMC, the depot received Occupancy Certificate (OC), a month and half back only. "Though the building seemed to be ready, there was a lot of internal work pending. It's not just a depot but a commercial space too," the spokesperson said.
